Zac Anderson

Zac is the middle child in the Anderson family. He is an outstanding athlete. He loves playing lacrosse, basketball and flag football. He's a great student who loves math and recess. His favorite foods are blueberries and breakfast burritos. Zac is a man of few words, but leads by example among both friends and family. His tender heart can always sense when someone needs a hug or some of his Sour Patch Kids. He is easy-going which makes him a friend to many and good to be around in any situation. Zac is excited to be baptized today to follow the Savior's example.

Mark Gabriel Carter

Mark is a confident, happy and responsible boy. He courageously follows Jesus and tries to do what is right. He enjoys rock climbing, riding his bike, building on Minecraft, cooking with his mom and going on journeys with his dad in his Semi truck. Mark has 3 older siblings and one little brother. He is a great big brother. He plays fairly, comforts his little brother when he is sad and says sorry quickly when he's made a mistake. Mark has many friends that like to play with him because he is kind, honest, grateful and fun. Mark is very excited for his baptism! He's also looking forward to the Second Coming of the Savior and the millennium when all the animals will be tame and he can go swimming with his pet Lemon Shark.

Mark's family love him dearly. Their family would not be complete without him.

Willow Creek 9th Ward

Austin Brady Flamm

Austin started playing comp soccer, after a game his team-mate said, "Good job on your Austin Game" and smiled big. His family knew exactly what it meant. Austin has turned his name into an adjective meaning: hard worker, doesn't give up, battles fiercely and stays positive. Austin is 100% his own person and an incredibly happy, goofy, young man. He is an outstanding brother to his sisters and he is both of their favorite person. Austin is working hard to be his best self and his family is proud of him for that and proud that he wants to be kind, loving, and truthful, just like Jesus. He is showing the world he wants to be like Jesus by getting baptized. Austin, you are so loved.

Stake Baptism Sept. 2, 2017

Willow Creek 1st Ward

Lincoln Hon Leung Wong

Lincoln has been such a blessing to his family. He is the fourth child of five children. He loves to create and always has a project in the works. He can make almost anything out of cardboard, tin foil and masking tape. Lincoln's favorite scripture story is of Teancum, a leader in Captain Moroni's army. Lincoln is a lot like him. He works hard for a cause he believes in and invents many new ways to solve a problem. He ends up doing much good because of his hard work and creative thinking. Lincoln also enjoys soccer, flag football and playing games with his siblings. He is especially sweet to his little sister who adores him and calls him "Keeney". He loves learning. He is always excited to tell you something new that he has learned. Lincoln is excited for this special day where he will be baptized.

Silas Hancey Smith

This baseball fanatic is the apple of his mother's eye and his dad's best helper. He has two big sisters who love to tease him and play with him. His up-for-anything attitude make him a great friend and a fun son. He is competitive and easy-going. Silas loves to play sports and play with his cousins and friends. He eats, sleeps and breathes baseball .. at least till basketball starts! Silas is great with his hands and with tools. He loves school .. especially recess. His favorite food is pizza and burgers. His favorite Primary song is "Choose Him Again". Another favorite pass-time is climbing the tree outside the church door and greeting everyone as they leave each Sunday. Like Nephi, Silas is obedient, yet his favorite story in the Book of Mormon is of Ammon and his sword. Silas is super excited to get baptized. He's also excited to move up in Sr. Primary. His parents couldn't be more pleased with him and his decision to be baptized.

Bridger Bradley Swenson

Bridger is his family's Mister Personality! He is spunky, active and a hard worker. He shines brightest in his home with his kind acts of service, usually at the moments when you least expect but need them most. He is amazing at surprising his family with thoughts of love - like making breakfast, making a homemade toy or writing a thoughtful note. He can warm your soul instantly with his kindness. Bridger's family love his persistence for figuring things out, his eagerness to learn and his tender heart. They also love how he is confident with who he is striving to be. Bridger loves doing any activity his dad does! He loves playing outside, playing and watching sports, riding bikes, reading, studying sport facts and building with legos. Bridger made his choice to be baptized and is excited to have his sins washed away and to receive the Holy Ghost. He is a super kid and is super loved in his home.
